

Letter To The Editor Opposes Increased Outlets

Editor, Didsbury Pioneer,
Dear Sir:-

Soon Alberta people will be asked to vote whether or not they favor having additional types of outlets for sale of beer, wine, and spirituous liquor, subject to a local vote. Certainly the answer cannot be wrapped up in a simple "Yes" or "No" vote on one's ballot.

The total decision is a tremendous one — for certainly your vote and my vote, may very directly affect the life of every man, woman, boy or girl, now living, as well as those not yet born.

To those of us who have reached mature years, and therefore are granted the right to vote, have also the responsibility of protecting our society, our homes, and our families. This, of course, is our immediate charge — but how about our children's children?

Not one of us living in this modern day of radio, television, and newspaper, can claim that we have no knowledge of the wreckage to material goods, human bodies, upright characters.

It is a fact that there is no way of determining before-hand which individual will become an alcoholic; or which individual will become the instrument of death, on our highways, or even in our homes.

It is a known fact that natural inhibitive barriers are let down in drinking, giving free reins to hatred, jealousy, envy and lust. We are unable to predict what disastrous consequences will follow — and many have followed.

As we ponder what values we place upon life, and we do value it for we do have doctors, nurses, hospitals, medicines, safety rules; does it not seem reasonable to use our influence to curb any increase in the sale of a commodity, that statistics prove, brings so much sorrow and heartache, as well as many untimely deaths.

(Rev.) W. D. Annett

DEATHS AT THE DIDSBURY MUNICIPAL HOSPITAL

To Mr. and Mrs. F. Herbert of Didsbury, on October 10, a daughter.

Midway News

(From Our Own Correspondent)

We have illness galore in the district. Mr. Ken Swanson and Mrs. Alan Marsh are in hospital, and Mr. Henry Brown is recovering from surgery. We wish them a speedy recovery, as well as the 'flu victims.

Mrs. Edgar Charlton is acting as substitute teacher for grades 3 and 4, due to the illness of Mrs. H. Shida.

The Stanley Tea held at the home of Mrs. A. McCulloch was well attended last Thursday evening and the hostess was able to choose a lovely group of young couples. A delicious lunch was served by the co-hostesses, Mrs. A. Hughes, Mrs. H. Schmitt and Mrs. G. Jochims.

Among those home for the Thanksgiving weekend were Lila and Annie McCulloch; Don Hauser, who is attending Henderson's secretarial school in Calgary; Mr. and Mrs. George Swapp and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Benjamin, all of Calgary.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Pendergast spent the weekend at Canmore.

The October meeting of Midway Cubs was held in the waiting room at the rink. Three boys were inducted as tenderpaws: Gerald Neufeld, Dennis Hender and Robert Taylor. Two new boys, Kenny Pauls and Grant Balderson, are joining.

A "thank you" goes to Mrs. Ruth Charlton, who has offered her help to the Cubmaster for the year.

The district dues have been paid and dues for the year have been raised to $1.16. Donations have been received amounting to $2.00.

A very successful camp was held at Sylvan Lake in July when Ralph Blithner and Kenny Weber won their swimming badges. Three boys have had to leave Cubs as they reached the 12-year limit.

Next meeting will be held Oct. 25 at 2:30 p.m., in the same location.

The quilt is yellow with green back, quilted with wool between, and will be raffled at a later date.

It is planned to hold a pot-luck supper for the members' families and friends in the school on Friday, October 25th, when films will also be shown. Five dollars was voted to the Alberta arthritis Society.

Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Hogg visited with Mr. and Mrs. C. Wilson on Sunday afternoon.

Guest Editorial

On Monday, Canadian democracy became more closely identified with the monarchy. It was a proud day, certainly for Canadians, and also, we suspect, for Her Majesty.

Her first words to the Senate and the House of Commons were an important constitutional reminder: "I greet you as your Queen. Together we constitute the Parliament of Canada."

As Canada inevitably grows in stature as an equal and in no way a subordinate of the United Kingdom, the importance of the Crown as one of the symbols of Commonwealth also grows. Her visits enhance that symbolism.

The speech she read, written for her by Mr. Diefenbaker, told enough to tease but not to inform. It was a good traditional speech, vague yet promising.

In foreign matters it reaffirmed the purpose of the previous government — support for the Commonwealth, the Colombo Plan, NATO and the United Nations.

It promised bigger aid sea pensions, and to more people, and bigger war veterans' allowances, and to more people. But nothing about taxes.

It foreshadowed greater stability for farm prices. How? Wait and see. Federal help for cheaper power in the Atlantic provinces — the most depressed part of Canada — certainly could do with something like that. Now talks with the Saskatchewan government toward getting an early start on the South Saskatchewan dam. Coming to terms with the U.S. over development of the Columbia river — but what terms?

Mons Chapter Meets Commitments

It is a great source of satisfaction to the members of Mons Chapter, I.O.E.E., to learn that all national and provincial commitments have been met. This means they have shared in sending relief to Korea and India, as well as contributing to British and European Relief.

Mrs. Ed Ford reported on her return from the semi-annual convention at Red Deer that the "Save the Children Fund" has proved a success.

Highlight of the October meeting was a short history of Mons Chapter written by Mrs. A. R. Kendrick, a charter member.

As usual, Mons Chapter will participate in the Remembrance Day service on November 11th.

Letter To The Editor

Editor, Didsbury Pioneer.

Dear Sir:- We, the members of the Didsbury Ladies' Golf Club, wish to express our appreciation for the excellent coverage appearing in your paper during the golfing season. We are signing off now until spring.

Our final party, at Mrs. Sam Devine's, was a great success. Word and wonderful were the bars that arrived for the evening (we order here, of course, to what the members were on their heads, not the members themselves).

Only twice during the entire season did we have to cancel competitions due to the weather — a good golfing year indeed.

So, until Spring, good-bye and again "Thank you!"

Sincerely,
Publicity Committee,
Didsbury Ladies' Golf Club

Oil refinery engineers and chemists use everything from teapots to trained mice to help them combat air and water pollution. Here Marilyn Dougherty pours while Imperial Oil chemist Bob Fern tastes tea made from river water. The tea magnifies the taste of any unpleasant elements in the water, helps the chemists to identify and eliminate them. Imperial Oil is spending about a million dollars a year to combat pollution around its refineries.

Ramblin' and Roamin'

Yes, It's Happening Now . . .

Renewed action on the road into town from the main highway. Gravel crews are working all out and at the time of writing had made more than a little difference on the driving surface. May we be blessed with more action in the same direction before the "ole man" moves in for keeps. Town-wise the weatherman put the clamps on the show insofar as roadwork is concerned but we're hoping to see "Jock and His Joes" do a fix-up job anytime new.

Just For The Record . . .

A plebiscite will be held later in the month with the eligible voters of the province confronted with the question of whether or not they desire more liquor outlets in Alberta. Elsewhere in this issue you will find ads putting forth both sides of the story. Check them over closely — your vote is needed in this important question — the way we see it your opinion should show on a ballot; that's what the legislators will go on.

Yes, It's Happening Now . . .

Live TV, no less. The World Series last week — this week the Queen! The biggest sporting event of the season came to us direct from the ball parks. The visit of our Queen also flashed across the screen in our wee house, thousands of miles away from the point at which the impressive and history-making ceremonies were taking place. Modern magic rears its head again!

Just For The Record . . .

So we built a fine new wing to our hospital; so we were all happy; so then the snow fell; so then the sidewalks were plugged up to your . . . ?; so all the staff members and visitors can't afford cars; so what do to the town fathers do about cleaning the walks? Nuthin'; so maybe the next time the deep white stuff clogs the path they may help a bit; so we're beefin' again, but we've got lots of backing on this one!

Just For The Record . . .

If your paper is a few hours late this week, don't blame the post office; don't castigate us too much either, please! 'Twas Thanksgiving weekend, remember? A time for all to take a few hours off to think over just how thankful we should be for the free country we live in and the opportunities that we have been blessed with.

And A Friendly Nod . . .

To the wee lad (he must have been in my class), who when asked by the teacher the definition of a hypocrite came out with the following fast answer: "It's a boy who comes to school with a smile on his face!"

THOSE CLEVER RUSSIANS

The launching of an artificial satellite by the Russians was quite a scientific achievement. Our pride is not too severely wounded. We are quite content to let the Russians come first in a few races, scientific and otherwise. We are not qualified to read all the significance into this achievement. It is certain that it has a serious bearing on modern military weapons. As for the beginnings of travel to outer space and to other planets, we are not too interested. We will let those who want to travel to the moon have our seat. Nor are we skeptical of what might be achieved. We have seen too many scientific introductions in our lifetime to laugh at anything new, no matter how absurd it might seem in its initial stages. There are plenty of smart scientists outside Russia to keep pace with anything these so-called classless society boys may achieve. Germany was ahead of the Allied forces in the matter of guided missiles before the end of World War II. She also had the atomic bomb well up on her program, but she did not get going in time to save off defeat.

Now the hope is that the new sciences will be devoted to peaceful objectives, like Britain is doing with atomic power in electrical generation.

Sleep snugly, there is no need for alarm at the moment. Our pride may be pricked a bit, but pride heals swiftly when sincere effort is applied to overcome chagrin.

Pink Card System Under The Gun

The provincial government has given some indication of a possible revision in the pink card system as it is not working to the entire satisfaction of the authorities.

Hon. Gordon Taylor, minister of highways, has stated that the present system is under complete study. It is the government's intention to make a definite statement at any early date.

Whether any change will necessitate legislation at the spring session of the Alberta legislature is not yet known though there is such a possibility. This aspect is also being studied.

Under the pink card system, the motorist is required to produce the card as proof of financial responsibility through having insurance if he is involved in an accident in which a person is injured or if damage to the car is in excess of $100. If the motorist is unable to produce the pink card, his car is impounded by the police and held until proof of financial responsibility is forthcoming.

One of the unfortunate aspects of the present system is the effect on visiting motorists from the states and some other provinces.

The Alberta highways department says it has taken special measures to notify various authorities in all states of the Alberta pink card system.

The information also is given to motorists crossing into Alberta at the U.S. border and is printed on highway maps. Despite these precautions and other steps, visiting motor tourists involved in accidents in Alberta have claimed they had no knowledge of the Alberta law. Some complained bitterly when their cars were impounded.

While there have been suggestions of a uniform pink card, this is made difficult by the fact that the amount of minimum car insurance varies in different states and provinces. At the same time it is obvious that a motorist could not be expected to carry 48 pink cards for all the states and 10 for the Canadian provinces.

Whether some reciprocal plan can be worked out between the different jurisdictions remains to be seen, though it is realized there are major difficulties.

It would be regrettable if the possible tourist gains are adversely affected by fears of the pink card system, even though the grounds for such concern might not be warranted.

NOT RESPONSIBLE . . . The professor grimly eyed the class as he prepared to return a batch of examination papers. "You will remain seated while these are passed out," he commanded. "If you were to stand it is conceivable that you might accidentally form a circle — which would make me liable for arrest." There was of course, a nibble at the bait. "Why?" asked one pupil. "For maintaining a dope ring!"

Notes From D.A.

By Howard J. Fisher

There are different ways of cultivating in the late fall which will be beneficial.

Deep tillage with cultivators should be used on fallow fields, especially if perennial weeds are a problem. This stroke will open up the soil allowing the frosts to do damage to the quack grass or thistle running root systems. In addition to this it allows for moisture penetration and the ridges prevent excessive runoff in the spring.

On stubble fields where perennial weeds are the main problem, the harmful effect to the weeds is the same. Heavy duty cultivators will not plug in the straw trash but will spread it and help in the incorporation of the straw in the soil. Again the mechanical breaking of the soil allows for better moisture penetration.

If the main problem is annual weeds or volunteer grain, surface tillage is best. This can be done with tiller, disc or disc harrows, the effectiveness of each depending greatly on the amount of straw cover. In all cases if the tillage is carried out, the trash breakdown will be speeded up and an earlier better weed growth in the spring will result. This of course will allow for an effective weed killing cultivation in the spring before seeding.

When fall tillage is carried out the tiller or disc blades must be sharp to cut the straw and penetrate the soil. Cultivators will do best for mechanically opening the soil if the spike teeth are used and a depth of approximately six inches is maintained.

WRITES . . .

By HELEN HOWARD

Dear Homemakers:
As I write this column it is a very wintry, blizzardy day and we are all wondering "what happened to summer" and where are those warm mitts and red flannels that we put away, it seems, only a short while ago. I hope by the time you read this that we will be enjoying that glorious Indian summer weather again.

Let's Talk Turkey
Frozen turkeys should be defrosted slowly in the plastic bag or wrapper in which they are frozen and at room temperature or in the refrigerator. Once the bird has thawed it should be cooked within 24 hours.

The object of roasting is to cook by dry heat and if turkey is roasted in a covered pan or with water added the flavor is not the same.
The recommended method for roasting is: roast uncovered on a rack in an open, shallow pan at a low temperature (300-350 deg. F.).
Cover with cheese cloth moistened in melted fat or with a loose
"tent" of foil. Baste only if cloth shows signs of drying out.

Make the most of the juices in your turkey by turning the bird on its breast rather than its back. The juices run into the breast and make it deliciously moist.

Frosted Grape Garnish
Moisten small clusters of washed grapes in slightly beaten egg white, then dip in granulated sugar, place on waxed paper and allow to dry.
Arrange around turkey platter on parsley or endive.

After the feast is over there are bound to be turkey leftovers. Just so that dad won't get tired of eating cold turkey all week, try this tempting new dish:

Turkey Fiesta
Four Servings
2 cups diced cooked turkey
1 (10 oz.) can condensed tomato soup
1/4 cup water
1/4 cup chopped green pepper
1/4 cup chopped celery
2 tbsp. minced onion
1 tbsp. Worcestershire sauce
Pinch of saffron
Salt and pepper
6 stuffed olives, chopped 1 1/2 cups tea biscuit mix or your own biscuit recipe
Combine turkey, soup, water, green pepper, celery, onion and seasonings and heat in double boiler (to prevent scorching). Stir chopped olives into biscuit mixture. Drop by spoonfuls on top of the scalding hot turkey mixture.
Be sure water in double boiler is boiling rapidly and turkey mixture is hot. Cover with a tight lid and steam dumplings for 15 minutes (without peeking).
Or place turkey mixture in a greased casserole, top with biscuits and bake at 400 deg. F. for 15 - 20 minutes. Serve at once with a crisp tossed salad.

with 16 members and five visitors present. Final arrangements were made to serve lunch at the Fred

A bazaar is planned for November 22, with final arrangements to be made at the next meeting.
Mrs. H. Robertson attended and her talk was enjoyed by all. The ten-cent draw netted $2 and was won by Mrs. E. Elliott. Mrs. J.

the contest.
Miss H. Howard made final ar-

NIGHT FLOWERING CATCH-FLY: I feel led again to talk about this weed. Just a few days ago a good, progressive farmer brought a specimen of weeds to my office for identification. It was this weed. I have also discovered the same weed on numerous farms during the past summer, which leads me to believe that something is causing it to spread.

In one case a farmer had seeded quite an acreage down to sweet clover last year in order that he might plow it under this year to enrich the soil. He apparently got the weed seeds along with the sweet clover seed. This is too bad, but it has happened and will happen again.

Be sure the seed you obtain for use on your farm is certified seed, free of weed seeds. The small additional cost of top quality seed will be the cheapest in the end.
Night flowering catchfly is an annual and winter annual. It can start growth in the fall, overwinter and then will have a head start in the spring if left undisturbed, such as on ground that is to be summer-fallowed. It will then reach maturity about the middle or near the end of July and shed its seed.

The plant grows from one to three feet in height, is rank, coarse and bushy, with large leaves. It is a rank heavy seeder and not subject to control with an ordinary dose rate of 2.4-D.
It grows only from seed, therefore it is important that plants be destroyed before they reach maturity.

Make sure that your seed does not contain these or other noxious seeds and you will be saving yourself a lot of trouble.

THERE IT GOES !!!

"Should additional types of outlets for the sale of beer, wine and spirituous liquor be permitted if such outlets are later approved by local vote?"

YOU WILL BE ASKED THIS QUESTION

in a Provincial Plebiscite on October 30th.

You will be asked to vote "yes" or "no" on this important question. The Alberta Hotel Association reprints it above so that you may consider it fully before casting your ballot.

Perhaps this question had occurred to you:
"If the liquor plebiscite is passed, will it permit certain types of liquor outlets which I do not approve?"

As you read the ballot you will find the answer! It expressly states that any new type of outlet which may be introduced will be subject to a local vote before being effective in any community. No additional type of outlet will be opened in any town or city unless the citizens approve it by this local vote.

Why is the plebiscite being held? Alberta's Legislative Assembly felt that Electors should be given their Democratic right to say whether or not the present Liquor Control Act is in keeping with the present-day thinking of the people of Alberta.

Where does The Alberta
Hotel Association stand?

In a Brief to the Liquor Committee of the Legislature, the Alberta Hotel Association suggested that if amendments were made in the Liquor Act, the following should be considered:

- Liquor Licenses for Dining Rooms of an obviously high standard.
- Cocktail Lounges in hotels with suitable administrative restrictions as to number and character of hotels where liquor may be sold.

This Association has the utmost faith in the Alberta Government's administration of the Liquor Control Act. This is why we feel that fears expressed on the question of new types of outlets are exaggerated. Any new outlets for the public sale of liquor would, we are sure, be controlled by legal restrictions.

You are being asked to give your opinion

30th.

DISTRICT NEWS

M.V.B.C. NEWS

(From Our Own Correspondent)

Classes have been organized in all the fields of study offered to over 40 students this year. The students are most enthusiastic about their work and already are studying diligently in the library, which has over 300 books. We welcome the new students and feel that they will make a wonderful contribution to the school this year.

On Tuesday of last week 108 books were beautifully arranged at the front of the chapel and words of appreciation were spoken by the A.S.B. President, Arnold Dietz, President Taylor and Rev. W. D. Annett, chairman of the board of directors. These books represent only a part of those that can be purchased by the gift of $500 to library needs by the student body. We will be getting more throughout the winter months.

The flu bug has hit the campus but lightly so far. We are hoping that it will pass us by. They also Mr. and Mrs. Ormand Sherrick have charge of the Colborne Sunday School for the winter months. They report a good attendance.

Mr. Carpenter is busy organizing his choir for the year. Lavern Traub has a very full schedule in piano, and will be unable to handle any more students. He is taking further work with a talented teacher in Red Deer during the winter months. Mrs. Taylor has a number of organs students also. The college will be humming with musical talent this winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Falk have loaned their record player to the college while they get settled in their new location on the new highway east of town. We appreciate the good music on it.

Mr. and Mrs. Ormand Sherrick entertained Mrs. Kagey, Miss Eby and Mr. Carpenter at lunch after service Sunday evening. They also showed their wedding pictures on the screen in the home of the Taylors to a number of friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard DeWitt visited relatives in Galtland during the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Willard Stauffer have taken up residence on the campus for the winter months. Willard is taking his second year of work, while Marilyn is working in the Campbell store.

Miss Shirley Shantz has accepted the position of library supervisor for the winter months, while she is taking her second year of work. She will have another student helping her as soon as one can be found to do the work.

'Pinocchio' On TV

One of the world's greatest children's classics will be brought to life Sunday, October 20, when the story of "Pinocchio" is aired over Station CHCT-TV, Channel 2 Calgary. Time will be announced.

According to George Law, owner of Law's Drug Store at Didsbury, the hour-long "spectacular" is guaranteed to delight the kiddies from three to ninety-three.

The effervescent Mickey Rooney is cast in the role of the lovable puppet, "Pinocchio", while versatile Walter Slezak portrays "Geppetto", the carpenter who creates "Pinocchio".

Other well known stage, screen, and radio personalities in the cast include Fran Allison, Jerry Colonna, Stubby Kaye, Marilyn Green and the dance team of Maida and Heidi. "Pinocchio" will establish a television "first", as it will be the first time that a television spectacular will be viewed from coast to coast in Canada on the same day.

As local sponsor of the show, which the Rexall Drug Company will telecast throughout the nation over every English language television station in Canada, Mr. Law

CREMONA NEWS

(From Our Own Correspondent)

Stan Hardy from Langley Prairie visited with Mr. and Mrs. L. Sanderman for a few days last week.

The United Church W.A. met at the home of Mrs. A. Thompson last Friday. Plans were started for the annual chicken supper scheduled to be held on November 21st. Mrs. B. Renfret is the new janitor at the school, replacing Mr. Taylor.

Miss Donna Maynes has commenced a dancing class at the school. The first session was held last Wednesday evening and from reports overheard, was a real success.

Mr. Dietz is now driving one of Mr. Gano's school buses.

The monthly meeting of the Credit Union Board was held at the office on Saturday evening. Plans were completed for the annual dance to be held at Water Valley on October 25th.

The Graham's have their dispensary almost completed. A drug store is indeed a welcome addition to Cremona. It is already possible to secure prescriptions.

Cremona C.O.I.T. have organized, with Mrs. Stone as their leader. Marie Bird has been elected president, Maxine Wood is secretary, and June May is treasurer. The latter will also assist Mrs. Stone.

Ode To 'Our Poet'

A poet seems to be within our midst. With words of hope, of care, of bliss:

Bringing forth his rhythmic schemes
On "Thank You", "Harvest", and other themes.

His topics always seem to remember.

The important days from January to December:

The poems he writes about certain times.

Are known by me to be all genuine.

I guess like all farmers, his mind goes to stray

He figured up the "Back Forty", while mowing the hay.

Some count up the money, while other's compose tunes.

I close this salutation, to our good friend, "Mr. Coombes"

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

The vital necessity of individual of the teachings of Christ Jesus will be emphasized at Christian Science services Sunday.

Key-noting the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Doctrines of Atonement" is the Golden Text from Pelams 40:18: "Turn us again, O Lord God of hosts, cause thy face to shine; and we shall be saved."

Selections to be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy will include the following (25:26-31): "Implicit faith in the teacher and all the emotional love we can bestow on him, will never alone make us imitators of him. We must so and do likewise, else we are not improving the great blessing of our Master worked and suffered to bestow upon us."

From the Bible will be read the following (II Corinthians 5:17): "Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new."

states that the "Pinocchio" show will launch the famed Rexall One Cent Sale, opening the following morning. The six-day event will continue through Saturday, October 26.

ARE YOU LISTENIN' ???

You fella's in the Springside district got any ideas about a small clean-up job around our Springside school, I've been snooping around and from the looks of things the "operation let's do it" is long overdue. Don't pay too much attention to my snopin' until you check over the situation yourself!

Famous Quotes . . .

It is better to go the house of mourning than to go the house of feasting.

It has always seemed to me that you can buy a man's time; you can buy a man's presence in a given place; you can even buy a measured number of skilled muscular motions per hour or day. You cannot buy initiative; you cannot buy loyalty; you cannot buy the devotion of hearts, minds and souls. You have to earn these things.

Take life as you find it, but don't leave it so.

Hurting another's reputation certainly won't improve your own.

CLOSE SHAVE ! ! ! !

Man (getting shaved): "Barber, when you please give me a glass of water?"

Barber: "What is the matter, a little hair in your throat?"

Man: "No, I want to see if my neck leaks!"

PRICES ARE HIGH

To buy a farm tractor in Argentina requires more than double the number of bushels of wheat than to buy the same machine in Canada, despite a government subsidy on tractor sales, according to Canada's commercial counsellor in Buenos Aires.

Cash Advances
Will Be Taxable

Any cash advances extended to prairie farmers for farm-stored grain will be taxable, federal authorities said Tuesday.

The throne speech Monday forecast that the new government will introduce legislation shortly to provide for such advance payments. It is understood the payment will be limited to 50 cents a bushel for wheat, 35 cents for barley and 20 cents for oats. Payments will be made on the basis of current production, limited to six bushels an acre with the maximum payment on an individual farmer limited to $3,000.

Federal authorities reasoned that the advance payment will constitute income for tax purposes.

Two closely related pictures were in a dual panel:-

The first showed a beautiful young lady with a little red devil in her arms. She is holding him tenderly and saying: "Isn't he lovely, so small and helpless."

In the second picture a full sized devil is standing over the dead body of the girl, his spear has penetrated her heart. And he cries triumphantly, "I have grown, I have grown."
